

As a civilian, Major Schull enjoys traveling, helping others realize their love of traveling, and hopes to one day see the Pyramids. Kyle is also an entrepreneur at heart and will begin working for his family's company, Building Products, Inc. and Schull Construction Co., after separating from the Marine Corps. I have no doubt that he will succeed in this new phase of his life.

During his time in my office, Kyle focused his efforts on defense acquisition, defense appropriations, the intelligence community, veterans affairs, and many other policy areas. He was an invaluable resource to all my staff and I would also like to take this opportunity to thank his family for supporting him through the years; he truly is one impressive guy. On behalf of everyone in the office, I would like to extend a heartfelt thank you to Major Schull for all his hard work, his dedicated service to our country and let him know that my office door is always open to him.

Mr. MESSER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, on behalf of the entire 6th Congressional District of Indiana, to recognize Greg Rust for his contribution to our state and Decatur County.

TRIBUTE TO FRED D. GARRETT, SR.

HON. JAMES E. CLYBURN

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. CLYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor a fellow South Carolinian and longtime friend, Fred D. Garrett, Sr.

Born in Salley, South Carolina to the late Rev. John E. Garrett and First Lady Mattie Baston Garrett, Fred Garrett grew up in his father's churches. He carried throughout his life the values of servant leadership and community engagement he learned through his childhood experiences in the church.

After graduating high school in 1943, Mr. Garrett enlisted in the United States Navy and served through the end of World War II in a segregated unit. Upon completing his military service, he returned home to South Carolina where he enrolled in South Carolina State College. He graduated in 1951 with a Bachelors in Agricultural Science with plans to modernize the state's agricultural industry.

Mr. Garrett began his career in public service working for Florence County, South Carolina as an agent for Clemson University's Agricultural Extension Program. Shortly after marrying his wife of 66 years, Mamie Williams Garrett, he moved to Greenville, South Carolina and became Clemson's Agricultural Extension Agent there.

In 1958 he was hired part-time as an employee of the then Watkins, Arnold and Sheppard Mortuary. He quickly became a part-owner/manager of the business, which changed its name to Watkins, Garrett & Woods Mortuary. Fred Garrett, Sr. became sole owner of the mortuary in 1993.

Mr. Garrett has served his community in numerous positions including his role as a lifetime member of the NAACP, membership with the Greenville County Planning Commission, a member of the Rainbow PUSH Steering Committee, board member with the Greenville Urban League/Urban League Upstate, and board member of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Garrett was also a member of the Mu Pi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. He received many awards for his service and business leadership, most recently a Business and Community Service Award from the Minority Economic Development Institute.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my colleagues to join me in honoring the life, leadership, and legacy of service of this outstanding South Carolinian.
